Past Events In 2016

Okehampton

We did not make our annual pilgrimage this year but we will certainly keep it on the back burner for future visits.

Skittles

At our first outing in March we have a new name as our champion. Pete Davies. Pete and his wife Sue were guests of Jan & Jen and despite claiming it was years since he played last, turned in a superb performance. The buffet was as usual first class. Thanks Jen for arranging the event.

Walk the Port

Newport City Council are organising a “Walk the Port” walking festival to be held on Saturday 3rd September 2016. It features a 21-mile self-led challenge walk provisionally called the “Newport Skyline” walk because it features Twmbarlwm and Machen Mountain. A led 18-mile walk, a 9-mile walk and several short walks will be organised. Short walkers will be asked for a donation to a nominated charity. The other walks attract a £10 entry fee or £8 if you book early. Booking will be on-line from a web site and social media will be involved.

Fred and Ken attended an early WtP meeting with Ivor joining for later ones. Fred provided a 9-mile walk in the country round Bettws and will lead it. Peter Elliott will lead the same walk starting later than Fred. Ivor has volunteered to lead the 18-mile walk and has recruited some SGR and NOGs members for marshalling duties and to man checkpoints on the 21-miler.

Fred attended a 2-day REC (Rescue Emergency Care) course because leaders must have the REC certificate. Ivor will also attend the REC course together with as many other volunteers as Newport CC can afford. Ivor will also accompany the Newport CC outdoor officer and others when they recce longer walk routes.

If anyone else is interested in acting as a marshall or at a checkpoint, let Ivor (07831 151081) or Fred (01633 266647) know.

Pre-walk Expenses

Members are also reminded that they should claim pre-walk expenses for any costs they incur for walks which appear on our programme. Contact Ken (Treasurer) 01633 894172 if you wish to more details on how to claim.
